12 UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
13 Plaintiff,
14 v.
15 HECTOR CIRINO,
16 Defendant.
17

Case No. 2:03-cr-00176-JCM-1

Stipulation to Continue Government's Deadline to File a Response to Defendant's Motion for Order
Reducing Sentence to Time Served and Modifying Judgment Under 18 U.S.C.
§ 3582(c)(1)(A)(i) (ECF 223)
(Third Request)

18
19 IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED, by and between Jason M.
20 Frierson, United States Attorney, and Kimberly M. Frayn, Assistant United States
21 Attorney, counsel for the United States of America, and Aden Kahssai, Assistant
22 Federal Public Defender, counsel for Hector Cirino ("Cirino"), that the government's
23 time to respond to the defendant's Motion for Order Reducing Sentence to Time Served
24 and Modifying Judgment Under 18 U.S.C. § 3582(c)(1)(A)(i) (ECF 223) Motion shall be
26

1 extended to and including February 20, 2024, and the defendant's time to file a reply
2 shall be extended to and including February 27, 2024, for the following reasons:

3 1. In October 2023, the 9th Circuit Court of Appeals vacated this Court's
4 order denying Cirino's request for compassionate release and remanded the case,
5 instructing that non-retroactive changes in sentencing law could be considered an
6 extraordinary and compelling reason for granting a sentencing reduction. ECF 217.

8 2. Defense counsel received two extensions of time for the defendant to file
9 his supplemental motion. ECF 218 and 221.

10 3. On or about January 22, 2024, Cirino filed his motion, (ECF 223), along
11 with approximately 233 pages of Cirino's medical records (ECF 225).

13 4. Government counsel needs additional time to review the motion, the
14 medical records, and other relevant records, conduct any necessary follow up
15 investigation, and to research and draft an appropriate response.

16 5. The defendant is in BOP custody and does not object to the government's
17 request. The parties agree to the extension of time.

19 6. This is the third request to extend the filing deadlines relating to the
20 defendant's compassionate release request, but it is the government first extension
21 lengthening its time to file a responsive pleading. The parties have agreed that the
22 government shall have up to and including February 20, 2024, in which to file its
23 response. The additional time requested herein is not sought for purposes of delay, but merely to allow the government sufficient time to file its response. The defendant will have seven days to file any reply, that is, to and including February 27, 2024.
26

DATED this 1st day of February 2024.

Case No. 2:03-cr-00176-JCM-1

Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law and ORDER

10                                   FINDINGS OF FACT

11               Based on the pending Stipulation of counsel, and good cause appearing therefore,
12       the Court finds that:

13               1.       In October 2023, the 9th Circuit Court of Appeals vacated this Court's
14       order denying Cirino's request for compassionate release and remanded the case,
15       instructing that non-retroactive changes in sentencing law could be considered an
16       extraordinary and compelling reason for granting a sentencing reduction. ECF 217.

17
18               2.       Defense counsel received two extensions of time for the defendant to file
19       his supplemental motion. ECF 218 and 221.

21               3.       On or about January 22, 2024, Cirino filed his motion, (ECF 223), along
22       with approximately 233 pages of Cirino's medical records (ECF 225).

23               4.       Government counsel needs additional time to review the motion, the
24       medical records, and other relevant records, conduct any necessary follow up
25       investigation, and to research and draft an appropriate response.
26

1           5.       The defendant is in BOP custody and does not object to the government's
2 request. The parties agree to the extension of time.

3           6.       This is the third request to extend the filing deadlines relating to the
4 defendant's compassionate release request, but it is the government first extension
5 lengthening its time to file a responsive pleading. The parties have agreed that the
6 government shall have up to and including February 20, 2024, in which to file its
7 response. The additional time requested herein is not sought for purposes of delay, but
8 merely to allow the government sufficient time to file its response. The defendant will
9 have seven days to file any reply, that is, to and including February 27, 2024.
10

11                               ORDER

12           THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the government shall have up
13 to and including February 20, 2024, in which to file its response to Cirino's motion for 14 compassionate release (ECF 223 and 225). The defendant shall have to and including 15 February 27, 2024, to file any reply.
